

Jeffrey Peters, M.D Biography

Jeffrey Peters, M.D, joined the Department of Veterans Affairs in 1986. His entire professional career has been at VA Pittsburgh Healthcare System. He has served as Chief of Psychiatry, Vice President for the Behavioral Health Service Line and Associate Chief of Staff for Behavioral Health at VA Pittsburgh Healthcare System. Dr. Peters provides direct patient care, teaches psychiatry residents and medical students, has administrative responsibilities, and he is involved with clinical research. Dr. Peters has worked on multiple regional and national VA committees. Dr. Peters is board certified in General Psychiatry, with Added Qualifications in Addiction Psychiatry and Geriatric Psychiatry. He is a Distinguished Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association. He is active with the Pennsylvania Psychiatric Society and the Pittsburgh Psychiatry Society, where he served as a prior President. Dr. Peters is an Associate Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine. Dr. Peters went to college and medical school in Ohio. After receiving his degree from Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine, he did his residency and chief residency at Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic in Pittsburgh, followed by a two year clinical research fellowship funded by the National Institutes of Health.